NOTE: NO ENTRY INTO THE SCHOOL AFTER 1630 HRS (04.30 PM).

2. Wards will be handed over ONLY to legal guardians- please ensure that you are in possession of identity card issued by the School. In the absence of the same please be prepared for delay because wards will be handed over first to those in possession of identity cards. In case you are not in a position to come personally, then please send an authority letter (as per format attached) with a photograph of the escort duly authenticated by signing across the photo in such a way that one part is on the photo and the other on the letter. The authorized person should be in possession of the identity card issued by the school to the legal guardians. Your cooperation is requested.
3. Please ensure that your ward returns in time. Defaulters, if any, will be levied a late fine @ Rs 1000/- (Rupees one thousand only) per day and the same will be deducted from her pocket money. Such defaulters will report to the Principal between 0900 hrs (9.00 am) and 1330 hrs (1.00 pm) on working days only- those coming beyond these times will not be permitted to enter the School. House teachers and Wardens will be under strict instructions not to accept any defaulter directly. The School hopes there will be NO defaulters and the festive spirit of the Break is not marred.
4. Please meet Class as well as Subject teachers and Mentors to discuss the performance of your ward. You are also requested to meet the School Resident Doctor prior to leaving the campus. Medical issues, if any, may be discussed with her and treated accordingly during the Break to avoid loss of training. The School is aware of the hurry that you will be in, but a few minutes of your precious time will go a long way in helping us look after your ward even better. The School requests your cooperation.
5. All students will wear School track suits and will be in possession of School identity cards while leaving for/ returning from vacation. No exit/ entry without the same.

Happy Holidays!
